Safe Haven

FROM YOUR ARMS TO OURS.

Nevada Safe Haven Law provides parents a safe and anonymous option for surrendering their baby.

Babies must be:

- unharmed,
- no more than 30 days old, and
- be left with staff at hospital, urgent care facility, occupied Police or Fire Station, or by dialing 911.

For more information call the Crisis Call Center of Nevada at 1-800-992-5757 or visit safehavennv.org

Safe Haven

FROM YOUR ARMS TO OURS.

Nevada Safe Haven Law provides parents a safe and anonymous option for surrendering their baby.

Babies must be:

- unharmed,
- no more than 30 days old, and
- be left with staff at hospital, urgent care facility, occupied Police or Fire Station, or by dialing 911.

For more information call the Crisis Call Center of Nevada at 1-800-992-5757 or visit safehavennv.org

Safe Haven

FROM YOUR ARMS TO OURS.

Nevada Safe Haven Law provides parents a safe and anonymous option for surrendering their baby.

Babies must be:

- unharmed,
- no more than 30 days old, and
- be left with staff at hospital, urgent care facility, occupied Police or Fire Station, or by dialing 911.

For more information call the Crisis Call Center of Nevada at 1-800-992-5757 or visit safehavennv.org

Safe Haven

FROM YOUR ARMS TO OURS.

Nevada Safe Haven Law provides parents a safe and anonymous option for surrendering their baby.

Babies must be:

- unharmed,
- no more than 30 days old, and
- be left with staff at hospital, urgent care facility, occupied Police or Fire Station, or by dialing 911.

For more information call the Crisis Call Center of Nevada at 1-800-992-5757 or visit safehavennv.org

Safe Haven

FROM YOUR ARMS TO OURS.

Nevada Safe Haven Law provides parents a safe and anonymous option for surrendering their baby.

Babies must be:

- unharmed,
- no more than 30 days old, and
- be left with staff at hospital, urgent care facility, occupied Police or Fire Station, or by dialing 911.

For more information call the Crisis Call Center of Nevada at 1-800-992-5757 or visit safehavennv.org

Safe Haven

FROM YOUR ARMS TO OURS.

Nevada Safe Haven Law provides parents a safe and anonymous option for surrendering their baby.

Babies must be:

- unharmed,
- no more than 30 days old, and
- be left with staff at hospital, urgent care facility, occupied Police or Fire Station, or by dialing 911.

For more information call the Crisis Call Center of Nevada at 1-800-992-5757 or visit safehavennv.org

Safe Haven

FROM YOUR ARMS TO OURS.

Nevada Safe Haven Law provides parents a safe and anonymous option for surrendering their baby.

Babies must be:

- unharmed,
- no more than 30 days old, and
- be left with staff at hospital, urgent care facility, occupied Police or Fire Station, or by dialing 911.

For more information call the Crisis Call Center of Nevada at 1-800-992-5757 or visit safehavennv.org

Safe Haven

FROM YOUR ARMS TO OURS.

Nevada Safe Haven Law provides parents a safe and anonymous option for surrendering their baby.

Babies must be:

- unharmed,
- no more than 30 days old, and
- be left with staff at hospital, urgent care facility, occupied Police or Fire Station, or by dialing 911.

For more information call the Crisis Call Center of Nevada at 1-800-992-5757 or visit safehavennv.org

Safe Haven

FROM YOUR ARMS TO OURS.

Nevada Safe Haven Law provides parents a safe and anonymous option for surrendering their baby.

Babies must be:

- unharmed,
- no more than 30 days old, and
- be left with staff at hospital, urgent care facility, occupied Police or Fire Station, or by dialing 911.

For more information call the Crisis Call Center of Nevada at 1-800-992-5757 or visit safehavennv.org

Safe Haven

FROM YOUR ARMS TO OURS.

Nevada Safe Haven Law provides parents a safe and anonymous option for surrendering their baby.

Babies must be:

- unharmed,
- no more than 30 days old, and
- be left with staff at hospital, urgent care facility, occupied Police or Fire Station, or by dialing 911.

For more information call the Crisis Call Center of Nevada at 1-800-992-5757 or visit safehavennv.org

What should you do?

1. If possible, obtain medical information for the baby. —Remember, the parent is not required to provide any information. Do not follow them.
2. Notify your supervisor and review agency policy.
3. Ensure emergency medical services are provided.
4. Notify child welfare and law enforcement within 24 hours.
5. For law enforcement only: determine if the child has been reported as missing.

What should you do?

1. If possible, obtain medical information for the baby. —Remember, the parent is not required to provide any information. Do not follow them.
2. Notify your supervisor and review agency policy.
3. Ensure emergency medical services are provided.
4. Notify child welfare and law enforcement within 24 hours.
5. For law enforcement only: determine if the child has been reported as missing.

What should you do?

1. If possible, obtain medical information for the baby. —Remember, the parent is not required to provide any information. Do not follow them.
2. Notify your supervisor and review agency policy.
3. Ensure emergency medical services are provided.
4. Notify child welfare and law enforcement within 24 hours.
5. For law enforcement only: determine if the child has been reported as missing.

What should you do?

1. If possible, obtain medical information for the baby. —Remember, the parent is not required to provide any information. Do not follow them.
2. Notify your supervisor and review agency policy.
3. Ensure emergency medical services are provided.
4. Notify child welfare and law enforcement within 24 hours.
5. For law enforcement only: determine if the child has been reported as missing.

What should you do?

1. If possible, obtain medical information for the baby. —Remember, the parent is not required to provide any information. Do not follow them.
2. Notify your supervisor and review agency policy.
3. Ensure emergency medical services are provided.
4. Notify child welfare and law enforcement within 24 hours.
5. For law enforcement only: determine if the child has been reported as missing.

What should you do?

1. If possible, obtain medical information for the baby. —Remember, the parent is not required to provide any information. Do not follow them.
2. Notify your supervisor and review agency policy.
3. Ensure emergency medical services are provided.
4. Notify child welfare and law enforcement within 24 hours.
5. For law enforcement only: determine if the child has been reported as missing.

What should you do?

1. If possible, obtain medical information for the baby. —Remember, the parent is not required to provide any information. Do not follow them.
2. Notify your supervisor and review agency policy.
3. Ensure emergency medical services are provided.
4. Notify child welfare and law enforcement within 24 hours.
5. For law enforcement only: determine if the child has been reported as missing.

What should you do?

1. If possible, obtain medical information for the baby. —Remember, the parent is not required to provide any information. Do not follow them.
2. Notify your supervisor and review agency policy.
3. Ensure emergency medical services are provided.
4. Notify child welfare and law enforcement within 24 hours.
5. For law enforcement only: determine if the child has been reported as missing.

What should you do?

1. If possible, obtain medical information for the baby. —Remember, the parent is not required to provide any information. Do not follow them.
2. Notify your supervisor and review agency policy.
3. Ensure emergency medical services are provided.
4. Notify child welfare and law enforcement within 24 hours.
5. For law enforcement only: determine if the child has been reported as missing.

What should you do?

1. If possible, obtain medical information for the baby. —Remember, the parent is not required to provide any information. Do not follow them.
2. Notify your supervisor and review agency policy.
3. Ensure emergency medical services are provided.
4. Notify child welfare and law enforcement within 24 hours.
5. For law enforcement only: determine if the child has been reported as missing.

What should you do?

1. If possible, obtain medical information for the baby. —Remember, the parent is not required to provide any information. Do not follow them.
2. Notify your supervisor and review agency policy.
3. Ensure emergency medical services are provided.
4. Notify child welfare and law enforcement within 24 hours.
5. For law enforcement only: determine if the child has been reported as missing.

What should you do?

1. If possible, obtain medical information for the baby. —Remember, the parent is not required to provide any information. Do not follow them.
2. Notify your supervisor and review agency policy.
3. Ensure emergency medical services are provided.
4. Notify child welfare and law enforcement within 24 hours.
5. For law enforcement only: determine if the child has been reported as missing.